§6–306.2.

(a) The Board shall place a licensed massage therapist or registered massage practitioner on inactive status if the licensee or registration holder submits to the Board:

(1) An application for inactive status on the form required by the Board; and

(2) The inactive status fee set by the Board.

(b) A licensed massage therapist or a registered massage practitioner on inactive status may reactivate the license or registration if the licensee or registration holder:

(1) Complies with the continuing education and CPR requirements that are:

(i) Established in regulations adopted by the Board; and

(ii) In effect for the current license or registration renewal period in which the licensee or registration holder seeks to reactivate the license or registration; and

(2) Pays the reactivation fee set by the Board.
